

All Your Questions Answered

- Q: What is the show about?
- RICK: About two hours.
- PAUL: The Frantics Walk Upright is about everything that ever happened. If we miss anything, please let us know.
- Q: Can we expect to see some of the Frantics' regular characters in this show?
- DAN: You can expect anything you want. But you won't see any of them.
- PETER: Actually, we are doing all our old characters, but we do them so badly, they look like new characters.
- Q: Are you expecting any controversy over the show?
- RICK: The religious material may offend some, the stuff on war might get some people upset and I think almost everyone will be angry over the ticket prices.
- Q: Looking back at history as you have, what's the one thing you've learned?
- ALL: Don't look back at history.

Greetings from Toronto Free Theatre's Impresario:

Guy Sprung

Hello, welcome to Toronto Free* Theatre. I'm Guy Sprung. We strive to present quality theatre here, but instead we're presenting the Frantics. Sometimes you have to forget about the fine traditions of live theatre and say, "Heck, it's about time we made some money."

Don't forget about our next upcoming money-loser; this winter we're presenting Nanook in the Park.

I hope you enjoy the show and this very funny programme designed around their history concept. The Frantics did this in an effort to interest potential publishers in a book version of their show. Which, I might add, the boys have promised to cut us in on.

Guy Sprung

Okay, so the Children's Aid Society is also a non-profit organization. We're just as deserving. We are. Thank you for your support.

The Frantics Walk UPRIGHT

A Journey Through History

Join Paul, Rick, Dan and Peter as they take you on a journey through history. From the formation of the earth and the outlying suburbs, to the first bits of gooey slime bumping together and forming life, to the civilizations that thought they were so great, right up to the twentieth century.

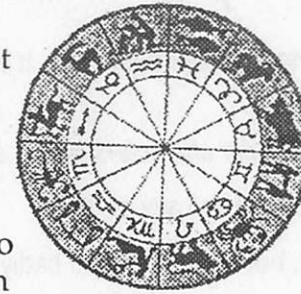

The Frantics Walk Upright show will answer the mysteries left unanswered by religion, science and Trivial Pursuit. The boys will delve into our murky past and get covered in Murk.

As well, the show is educational, you'll learn hundreds of things, some of them true. The Frantics Walk Upright is the most historically accurate production since Cats.

*Free as in, not really free at all.

Astrology

Astrology has been with us for many thousands of years. It is an ancient and mysterious art-form developed by the most learned men of the village for very dim people who couldn't figure out how to handle their own lives. The elders would laugh and laugh and laugh. It was one of the first practical jokes.

Knight's Equipment

Alamo

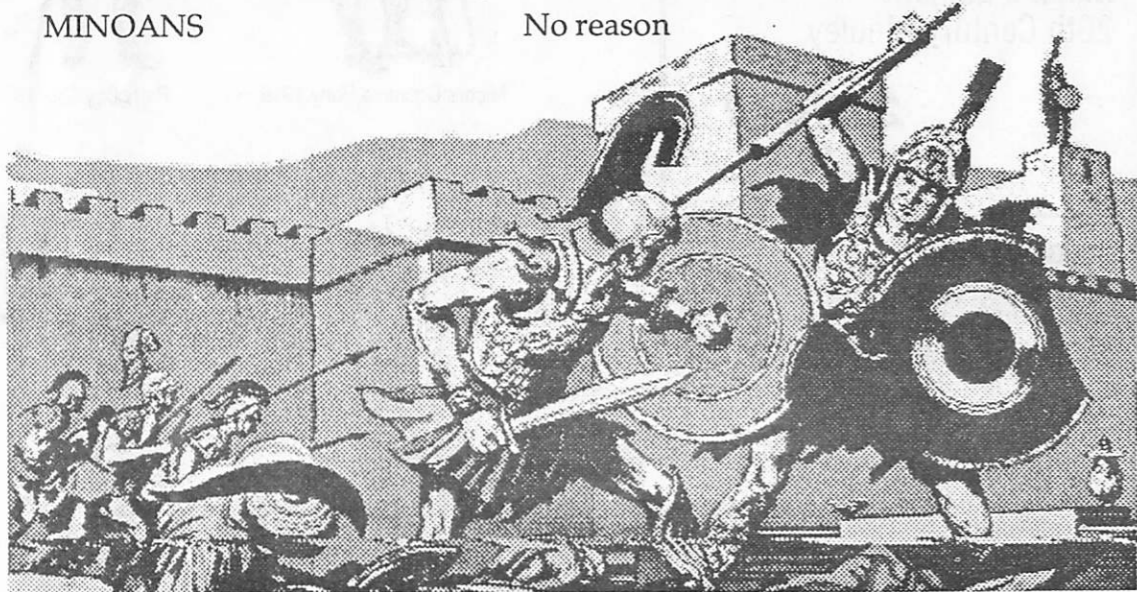

The Alamo, a battle that will be remembered as just one of many blunders the United States will make throughout its history. Bunch of idiots get massacred by the Spanish and the Americans turn them into heroes. It was a stupid, useless little battle, where the Americans were totally outnumbered. These men weren't heroes, they were cretins. But Americans don't want to know that all their heroes were dinks and pin-heads, like George Washington.

The worst general the United States ever had. So what did they do? They made him president. Next thing you know, the United States will elect an actor for president.

Michael Jackson's Top 6 Fave Civilizations

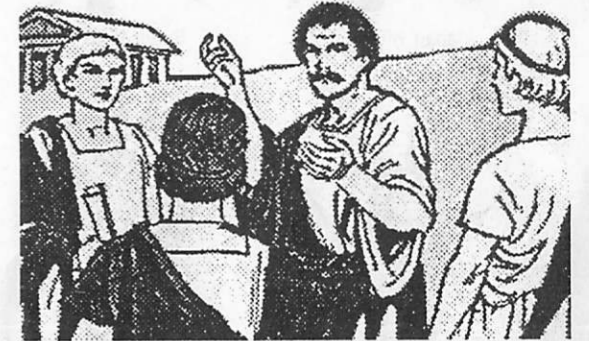

CIVILIZATION	REASON FOR BEING FAVE
GREEKS	Invented democracy, had lots of cool Gods
HITTITES	Loved Diana Ross
ROMANS	Invented Caesar salad. Gave us the aqueducts and ideas for cool movies like Ben Hur.
ETRUSCANS	Love that name. Also Fab dancers.
EGYPTIANS	Drove great cars.
MINOANS	No reason

Socrates

Socrates' parents were Stavros and Rosemary Clooney. Stavros and Rosemary met at a swim meet in the very first Olympics.

Soon Socrates was born. At the age of nine months the brilliant young Socrates was already working in his parent's restaurant.

But Socrates wanted more out of life, so he searched out the Oracle of Delphi. He found her under a lamp in Athens turning tricks for visiting Phoenesians.

Socrates learned much under her, and on top of her and on a bentwood chair. Soon because of his incredible

Amazons

Among the old Greek legends there are stories of women warriors called Amazons. The Amazons, according to legend, lived in a country where there were no men. They created a society of respect and equality and they had great legs.
